

NEW YORK SHARKS
TRYOUT AGREEMENT

It is understood that this tryout is sponsored by the NY Sharks Women's Pro Football Team. The purpose of this tryout is to obtain information regarding your potential participation as a full contact football player for the Sharks. In order to participate on the Sharks for the 2012 season, you must be available to attend training camp and play games as scheduled from March through August. If you are a successful candidate following the tryout, you may be invited to one or more mini-camps sponsored by the Sharks that will test your football skills, agility and stamina. Mini-camp will also involve full contact sessions with helmets and pads. If you are successful candidate following the mini-camp, you may be invited to participate in training camp for the Sharks. It is understood and agreed that by signing this agreement you are granting to the Sharks, subject to any priority established by prior tryouts with another women's football team within the last 12 months as set forth above, a right of first refusal to offer you a player position with the Sharks before you will be authorized to explore your playing opportunities with other women's football teams.

I understand that if I am offered the opportunity to participate as a player on the Sharks, I agree to comply with all of the rules, regulations and guidelines of the franchise and of any league in which the Sharks are a member.

I further understand that there are significant risks involved in participation in a full contact sport of women's professional football. I acknowledge and accept the risk that I may sustain one or more serious injuries during the tryout and the mini-camps. In this regard, I have no knowledge that I am pregnant or suffer from any injury or disability that would preclude me from active participation in the tryouts and the mini-camps covered by this agreement. It is further understood that until I am invited to training camp by the Sharks that I am solely and fully responsible for the costs of any medical or other expense that may be incurred as a result of any injury occurring during the tryouts or mini-camp. I hereby agree to waive, release and hold the Sharks, LLC, as well as its management and marketing LLC harmless against any claim for damages that I may incur as a result of any injury occurring during the tryouts or mini-camp.

It is further understood I must execute this agreement and pay a tryout fee of $40 payable to the NY Sharks prior to participation at any tryout.
